

All Graduates
INTERPRETING & TRANSLATING

AfCAS

ASSOCIATION FOR CULTURALLY APPROPRIATE
SERVICES

Seminar on the WA

Voluntary Assisted Dying Act 2019

Promoting Understanding for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) People

Tuesday 12 October 2021 | 7:30am to 10:30am

William Street Family Therapy Centre Conference Room

544 William Street, Mt Lawley

$10 registration fee. $5 for AfCAS members or NAATI-certified translators and interpreters (eligible for 10 PD points).

Panellists

Simon Towler
Lead for End of Life
Care, Department of Health (WA)

Sabena Lund
Community Education &
Projects Officer,
Palliative Care WA

Mary Gurgone
Association for Culturally
Appropriate
Services (AfCAS)

Hayden Rigby
Lecturer, ECU's
School of Business and Law.

Fatih Karakas
Head of Training, All
Graduates & Lecturer, Translation &
Interpreting, RMIT

WA's new Voluntary Assisted Dying Act 2019 from the health, community, cultural, linguistic, legal and experiential perspectives with emphasis on interpreting & translating in the last half hour of the seminar

Places are limited. Participants will receive a recording after the event.

Register here: VAD Seminar Registration Survey

Contact: Mary Gurgone at info@afcas.net.